

CELEBRATING ROMAN WEST CUMBRIA: THE SENHOUSE ROMAN MUSEUM 30th ANNIVERSARY CONFERENCE

with Guest of Honour:

Professor David J Breeze, OBE, BA, PhD, Hon DLitt, FSA, Hon FSA Scot, FRSE, Hon MCifA

Patron of the Museum, former Trustee and previous Chair of Trustees

24th - 25th April 2020

to be held at THE SETTLEMENT, High St, Maryport, CA15 6BQ

2020 is the 30th anniversary of the Senhouse Roman Museum opening to the public. A number of events and exhibitions are planned throughout the year to celebrate the Museum's continuing success, and looking forward to the future. The conference is part of that celebration.

Conference fee: £30 (includes tea and coffee). Lunch not included

For a list of suggested accommodation and lunch options contact the museum.

Tickets are available from the museum on 01900 816168.

Payment by debit and credit cards accepted.

Senhouse Roman Museum, The Battery, Sea Brows, Maryport, Cumbria CA15 6JD

senhousemuseum@aol.com

WWW.SENHOUSEMUSEUM.CO.UK

Charity number 1175131

SEE OVER FOR CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

PROGRAMME

Friday 24th April

19.30 – Pete Wilson, Chair of Trustees of the Senhouse Roman Museum – Welcome

19.35 – Prof Dr C Sebastian Sommer, Landeskonservator Bayerisches Landesamt für Denkmalpflege –
Maryport and The Wall –

Keyholes towards the Frontiers of the Roman Empire World Heritage Site(s)

Saturday 25th April

9.30 – Pete Wilson, Chair of Trustees of the Senhouse Roman Museum – Introduction

9.40 – John Zant, Oxford Archaeology North – Life on Rome's North West Frontier:

the Maryport Roman Settlement Project. 2013-14

10.20 – Prof Ian Haynes and Tony Wilmott, University of Newcastle –

The Maryport Altars and Temples Project

11.00 Coffee

11.20 – Lindsay Allason-Jones, Visiting Fellow University of Newcastle –

New Light on Old Stones

12.00 – Chris Howard-Davis and Rachel Newman, Oxford Archaeology North –

Burying in a Roman style? The Beckfoot cemetery evaluation

12.40 – Lunch (delegates to bring their own, or there are various possibilities in Maryport)

14.00 – Kurt Hunter-Mann, Independent Consultant –

Romans in Ravenglass: Archaeological Investigations at Ravenglass and Muncaster Castle

14.40 – Pete Wilson, Chair of Trustees of the Senhouse Roman Museum/Rare Archaeology

– Looking to the West? Roman military deployment in West Cumbria

15.20 – Coffee

16.00 – Prof David Breeze, Patron Senhouse Roman Museum – Looking back

16.30 – Discussion

17.00 – Conference session closes

To be followed, at the Senhouse Roman Museum, by a wine reception and private view of the Museum for delegates

Sunday 26th April

Optional extra activities (no additional charge)

10.00 – Tour of Fort and vicus for delegates

11.00 – Free access to the Senhouse Roman Museum for delegates